*Conclusion: The Kobold Shaman lies in a heap at the bottom of the pit before you as the energies that hedged out the spirits collapse. Without that barrier holding him back a whisper of Khurgan moves in to the chamber to sit upon the makeshift throne. He stares at you with burning green eyes and seems to be waiting. You speak out, "Begone! Back to the land of the dead with you!". A chill fills you as Khurgan begins to laugh, his deep voice echoes through the tunnels, the very walls begin to shake and the ground rumbles. You decide that with the circle broken and Khurgan's wrath being sated, you've probably done all that you can for now and take your leave. As the stone collapses from the ceiling you vow never to return.
